FRANKFORT, KY., DECEMBER 19, 1885.

Number 14.

Our neighbor of the Yeoman is evidently opposed to Capital punishment.

Dr. W. H. Phyllan has been appointed Coroner of this county by County Judge Thomson.

There are now some twenty candidates for jailer on the track and several others are thinking of announcing themselves.

We will hardly have a chance to take river water with our Christmas whiskey. The break in the pipe will be closed in the sweet by and by.

Three divers are at work placing the pipe in proper position. It is to be hoped they will get it down right this time so that it will remain together.

As the 27th of December, St. John's day, falls on Sunday this year, the Masonic Lodges of this city will meet on Saturday night next to elect their officers.

The County Court has divided the Bald Knob precinct and created the Flat Creek precinct out of part of it, with the voting place at Flat Creek School-house.

The festival and bazaar given by the ladies of the First Presbyterian Church at the Court-house Tuesday evening was a complete success, the net receipts amounting to $316 75.

Mr. Jas. H. Daily will open in a few days a grocery and general store in the room on Broadway formerly occupied by Meagher Bros., and vacated on Monday by Mr. Taylor Collins.

R. C. O. Benjamin, Esq., a colored lawyer from Richmond, Virginia, has located in Lexington for the practice of his profession and we understand will open a branch office in this city.

Rev. R. E. Caldwell having gone to Versailles to assist Rev. Dr. Root in a communion meeting, there will be no services at the Southern Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning and evening.

Mr. Minus Williams is announced in this issue as a candidate for jailer. If elected he will be well up to the front when the polls close on the first Saturday in April.

The water from the new reservoir was turned into the South Frankfort system of pipes on Tuesday, and in case of fire on that side of the river now there will be no such destruction of valuable property as there was on Monday night of last week for lack of water to put out the flames.

A grand supper will be given at the First Independent Baptist Church in this city on Friday and Saturday evening next, December 25th and 26th, for the purpose of raising funds to erect a new house of worship. John Dickerson will have charge of the supper and will call upon our citizens for contributions to the same. The cause is a worthy one and should receive liberal assistance.

Prof. T. M. Hawes, reading at the Court-house Saturday evening was a very agreeable entertainment indeed, and deserved a much larger audience. The Professor has a very pleasant voice and his rendition of every piece given was first-class.

He will visit this city again in January, and give a reading at the Opera House for the benefit of the Baptist Church, when it will be hoped a large audience will greet him.

Notice to Reading Circle.
Owing to circumstances over which I have no control, I hereby tender my resignation from the Presidency of the Reading Circle, trusting that the order may at once have a called meeting and elect some one to occupy the vacancy.
JAMES B. LEA.
BRIDGEPORT, KY., Dec. 15, 1885.

The Legislature will meet in this city on Wednesday week, the 30th inst.

Farmers complain greatly of hunters trespassing upon their premises. They say it is useless to post their places, as the notices are knocked down by the first boy or negro who comes along with a gun, and the shooting goes on just the same.

The rise in the river Tuesday night caused considerable trouble to the workmen laying the water pipe. The rafts to which it was suspended were carried down stream considerable distance and the pipes moved out of position twenty feet. Fortunately none of the joints were broken.

Have tried Tongaline in sciatic neuralgia with excellent results; it controls the attack in a few hours, often giving almost immediate relief.
F. W. OWEN, M. D.
Detroit, Mich.

The Steamer Hilbernia, which was recently purchased by Capt. S. V. Pence and other gentlemen of this city, has been rechristened the Susan M. Pence, and will be commanded by Capt. Sandy, while Capt. H. B. Cammack will take the first clerkship. She is still on the ways in Cincinnati, but will be off in about ten days.

We understand that by the death of a brother in Australia Mr. Pat. Downey, of this county, has fallen heir to a large estate in that country. It is said there will be no trouble in proving his claim to the property and he will certainly come into possession. Mr. Downey certainly is to be congratulated on his good fortune.

From a Sense of Duty.
Some people shrink from making public the benefit they have received, while others are free to tell it abroad for the good of fellow mortals. Of the latter kind is Mr. J. H. Coppuck, of Mount Holly, N. J., who writes, "I am one of the many who give their cheerful appreciation of the merits of the efficacy of your valuable Brown's Iron Bitters from a sense of duty. This bitters is doing much good in our country, for which I can vouch."

Hon. B. Gratz Brown, eldest son of the late Judge Mason Brown, of this city and half brother of Mrs. W. T. Barrett, of this city, died suddenly at his home near St. Louis, Missouri, on Sunday. He had been Governor of that State, a General in the Federal Army, United States Senator, and was a candidate for Vice President in 1872, on the Greeley ticket.

We would call the attention of the city authorities to the fact that the oil lamp on the corner of Cross and Main streets is so out of repair that it cannot be lighted and unless fixed the city will have a good sized suit for damages on its hands when some one tumbles off the sidewalk at that point into a hole five or six feet deep with a fire hydrant at the bottom.

There was an interesting meeting of the Women's Christian Missionary Society last evening at the Methodist Church. Mrs. Jos. Swigert, nee Runyan, a most interesting lady in appearance and in manner, spoke, and Miss Lizzie Knapp read in her interesting way, a letter written by Mrs. Haygood, from Shanghai, China, the native home of the big chickens. It graphically described the work doing and to be done.—Paris True Kentuckian.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. I have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucken's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucken's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by Joe LeCompte. 5

The O. F. C. distillery commenced running Wednesday for the season of 1885-6.

The Gospel Temperance meetings are now held every Tuesday evening at the Court House. Everybody invited to attend.

Grand Juror Warden J. W. Pruett went to Louisville Thursday morning to pay an official visit to and inspect the work of DeMolay Commandery of that city. He was accompanied by Grand Commander J. M. Saffell and Sir Knights J. Q. A. Stewart, V. A. Kaltenbrun and J. R. Stafford.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
THE BEST TONIC.
This medicine, combining Iron with purgative tonic, quickly and permanently cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malarial Chills, Fevers, and Neuralgia.
It is an infallible remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.
It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives. It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other iron medicines do. It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves heartburn and biliousness, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.
For Intermittent Fevers, Lassaitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.
The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines. Take no others.
Solely by BROWN & COMPANY, CINCINNATI, OHIO.

NOTICE.
IN MOTION OF ESQUIRE McDONALD, IT is ordered, that no claims shall be allowed for any pauper, after the aid has been given by the citizen, unless the County Judge or Court directs the aid to be given; and that no allowance above the sum for which an individual can be kept at the almshouse be allowed to any citizen keeping a pauper, and that this order shall be published in the Frankfort papers for the term of three months, and that no citizen shall in any case be allowed even this amount, unless he complies with the provisions of this order.
N. B. SMITH, Clerk Franklin County Court.

Neuralgia

CAN BE CURED WITHOUT THE USE OF OPIUM OR MORPHINE!
The Medical Price, published at St. Louis, says in the June, 1884, issue: "Many have become victims to the use of opium or morphine, from the use of those drugs for the relief of Neuralgia. It is gratifying to observe that such dangerous consequences may be averted by the use of Tongaline, which is almost a specific in the acute form of Neuralgia."
"I consider Tongaline the best preparation for Neuralgia I have ever tried."

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 19, 1885.

The Educational Convention.

The educational mass meeting at the Hall of the House of Representatives on Saturday, December 12, was an important event. The hall was crowded to overflowing with an intelligent and appreciative audience, who seemed highly delighted with the exercises. Hon. J. L. Scott, by request of the President, Thos. Hunter, presided over the meeting and Chas. H. Parrent acted as secretary. After an appropriate opening prayer by Rev. G. C. Kelly, Thos. B. Ford delivered the address of welcome, which was responded to in a beautiful poetic address by Miss Katie Shipp, a young lady teacher of great accomplishments and intelligence. Prof. T. M. Hawes, the celebrated elocutionist, recited two pieces, one sentimental and the other comic, in a manner which exhibited his extraordinary powers and brought down the house. Major Stanton recited his renowned poem, "The Moneyless man," which has immortalized him and made him famous as one of the leading poets of America. This poem is one which will be remembered as long as time shall last, so full is it of truth and pathos. Miss Mary Merna very appropriately read "The Answer to the Moneyless Man" in an excellent manner. Col. Scott read "Proud Miss McBride" in a manner that would have done honor to Saxe himself. An original poem by Miss Laura C. Ford, possessing considerable merit, was well received. Thos. B. Ford read an essay in rhyme on the school fund, which was funny and had perhaps more truth than poetry in it. It was a good natured hit at the School Fund system as at present conducted, and while there were a few ruts, it was clearly understood they were all made in a Pickwickian sense. But, truth to tell, it was the most striking feature of the occasion, whether judged by its intrinsic merits as a timely satire, or by the plaudits showered upon it during and since its delivery. It has, indeed, been the talk of both town and county. Mrs. Leslie Collins' poem was very pretty and read in a very graceful manner. The essay of Prof. J. B. Lea on "Compulsory education" was full of thought and learning. It was one of the most important features of the occasion. The address of Fuller Case, on "School Discipline," was very sensible and delivered in an elegant style that captivated the audience. Mr. Case, although a very young man, is quite an orator. Miss Nannie Browder read an essay on spelling by Miss Lottie Prather, that received high encomiums, both for the subject as treated as well as the exquisite manner in which it was read. The songs of Miss Nellie Orblison are beyond description. This feature was a great treat for the audience and one which they will seldom have an opportunity of enjoying. Prof. Mauer and his pupils rendered most charming instrumental music throughout the meeting during the intervals between the different exercises, and every one applauded the strains. Resolutions of thanks to those persons who had so generously volunteered to make pleasant the occasion and to Mrs. Virginia Hanson, the State Librarian, for the use of the hall, were adopted unanimously, after which the meeting adjourned. Several important features were omitted for want of time.

Taken altogether, it was one of the most entertaining meetings of the kind we ever attended.

The Board of School Trustees have located the first grade, Miss Annie Kersey, teacher, in the south hall of the Odd Fellows' Temple, and the second grade, Miss Julia Todd, teacher, in the north hall of the same building. The third grade, Miss Sarah Bell, teacher, in the third story of P. C. Sower's building. The fourth grade, Miss Minnie Bell, teacher, in the second story of the same building. The fifth grade, Miss Mollie McEwan, teacher, the sixth grade, Miss Lou Ward, teacher, the seventh grade, Miss Anna Sullivan, teacher, and the eighth grade, Miss Lena Lynch, teacher, are all located in the Strobridge building, No. 224 Main street.

The ninth grade, Miss Nannie Browder, teacher, will be located in the Masonic Hall, over the County Clerk's office.

The tenth grade, Mrs. S. T. Bailey, Miss Maggie Lewis and Miss Sue Jenkins, teachers, will be located in High School Building, No. 404 Second street, South Frankfort.

The Superintendent's office is located in the third story of the Sower building.

The patrons and friends of the school are most cordially and earnestly invited to visit all grades of the school.

The boats are now making regular trips up to Oregon, thirty-five miles above this city.

Mrs. Mattie Milam, wife of Capt. B. C. Milam, died in Cincinnati Sunday morning at 7 o'clock, aged 56 years. She had been in very bad health for nearly a year past, and about two months since went to Cincinnati for treatment. For a time it was thought she was improving, but a week ago she began to grow worse and never rallied until death came to relieve her sufferings. Although her malady seemed to be beyond the reach of medical skill, death was not thought imminent and it has been a severe blow to the hearts of a devoted husband and children, to whom the warmest sympathy of the entire community is extended. It is indeed sad that her death occurred away from home, but both her children, Mrs. U. Keenon and Mr. John W. Milam, were at her bedside when her spirit winged its flight, and did all that loving hands could to allay her intense suffering. The funeral took place Tuesday morning from the First Presbyterian Church, of which she had long been a member, the services being conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. McC. Blainey, assisted by Rev. Geo. Darsie.

Last Sunday afternoon three young men of this city hired a horse and buggy from a lively stable in the lower part of town and drove out to see some young ladies residing in the country. They remained until about dark and then returned to the city, but instead of returning the horse to the stable intrusted it to a small boy residing in that vicinity, who agreed to drive it down there. Instead of obeying instructions the boy rode around the city until he was tired and then turned the horse loose upon the street. Some time during the night it found its way to the stable, with the buggy all smashed up, and the proprietors, thinking the horse had run away, thrown the young men out and killed some of them, started out a force of hands with lanterns to look for them, expecting to find their dead bodies lying in some fence corner. As there will be a pretty large bill of damages to pay, it is doubtful if they have found the young gents yet.

Lock No. 5 is in good working order and the boats will run regularly to Oregon, 35 miles above Frankfort and at this stage of water will run to High Bridge. The Hornet will make regular trips once a week on Friday evening for Oregon returning on Saturday. The Grace Morris or Dora No. 2 will run twice a week to Oregon and above.

Frankfort can now rely upon the upriver for transportation and it is certainly to her interest to look after and develop this avenue to her industry.

We understand that a gentleman who came up on the eight o'clock train from Louisville the night the Public School building was burned says that when he was passing by that building on foot, going to his home in the country, a man came hurriedly out of the yard and in his haste ran against him in the dark. When spoken to sharply for having jostled the gentleman, the man merely said "Pardon," and hurried away. When the gentleman had reached the top of the hill he looked back and saw the light of the fire. If this be true the origin of the fire, which has been a mystery heretofore, can easily be explained.

Personal.

No. 306 Main Street.

The Trustees of the Frankfort Public Schools, Messrs. W. S. Dehoney, D. L. Haly, and E. Whitesides, assisted by Prof. S. P. Browder, the Superintendent of the schools, deserve the highest praise in their efforts to have the school reopened, and will arrange to have them reopen on Monday next, December 14, and up to this time have decided to locate the 1st and 2d grades in the Sower building, on Main street, opposite MEAGHER BROS. store, and to be conducted under the management of able teachers. While the loss of this institution has made many sad hearts in our community, we desire to remind the patrons of the Public School, and the Schools of the city and county, and the public generally, that in their grief over this loss, they should not overlook the fact that we have made arrangements to assist to gladden their hearts, and to this end have carefully selected a stock of CHRISTMAS PRESENTS, that will be useful at all times, and the PRICES are such that they will be within the reach of everybody. Among our stock of CHRISTMAS GOODS will be found Books, Writing Desks, Gold Pens, Inkstands, Paper Weights, Bibles, Photographs and Autograph Albums, Scrap Books, Plates, Picture Frames, Silk Umbrellas, Musical Rolls, Games, Handkerchiefs and Glove Boxes, Etc. We also keep a full line of School Books, Pens, Pencils, &c. that are used in the Schools. Our line of BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS AND CAPS are also complete. You cannot afford to buy goods in our line until you examine our goods and prices.

Newman, of this county, $2,000, being the amount of an insurance policy on his life held by him in that company. The policy was paid in full, without deduction for any cause.

Amusements.

PATTI ROSA AS "ZIP."

"Zip," made famous to the theatre-going world by the favorite Lotta, was presented to a very large audience at the Boyd last night, by Patti Rosa, and the presentation was of such cleverness and sprightliness that the petite soubrette received almost continuous applause. Patti Rosa has that lively knack of performing little antics with her heels, making indescribable little grimaces with her pretty face, and uttering charming nothings with her rosy mouth, which never fails to captivate the heart of the spectator, and which effectually disarms criticism. She is great; she is in every way graceful; she pleases by the very simplicity and ingenuousness of her methods—nothing elaborately artistic, but much that is irresistibly winsome.

Patti Rosa is as much of an original in her own peculiar way as either Lotta or Maggie Mitchell, and "Zip" could not be better suited to her talents had it been especially written for her instead of for Lotta. The same may be said of "Bob," which will be presented to-night, and which, if anything, is more pleasing than "Zip."—The Omaha Herald.

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes, that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, did not wait long to feel the effect of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all Coughs and Colds with the best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery. Trial Bottles free at Jos LeCompte's Drug Store.

Danger! A neglected cold or cough may lead to Pneumonia, Consumption or other fatal disease. Brown's Peppermint Cure is a cold as by magic. Best thing for dyspepsia, indigestion, sick headache as thousands testify.

Is Every Body Drunk?

Among the many stories Lincoln used to relate was the following: Turning along a lonely road one morning on my way to the county seat, Judge—overtook me with his wagon and invited me to a seat.

We had not gone far before the wagon began to wobble. Said I, "Judge, I think your coachman has taken a drop too much."

Putting his head out of the window, the Judge shouted: "Why, you infernal scoundrel, you are drunk!"

The coachman said: "Be dead I but that's the first 'rightful' s'cision your Honor's giv'n 'n a twel'month!"

If people knew the facts they would be surprised to learn how many people reel in the streets who never "drink a drop."

They are the victims of sleepless tendencies, of drowsy days, of apopleptic tendencies, whose blood is set fire by uric acid. Some day they will reel no more—they 'drop dead, just because they haven't the moral courage to defy a self-professional attendance, and by use of the wonderful Warner's safe cure neutralize the uric acid in the system and thus get rid of the 'drunkenness in the blood.'—The American Rural Home.

Forks of Elkhorn.

War declared at Woodlake.

Mr. Eva Brown, of Louisville, is visiting friends here.

Miss Emma Stedman sustained a very painful injury of her nose by falling at the skating rink.

A Christmas tree next Thursday night at Providence Church; one at the Forks school-house Christmas night and one at Mt. Pleasant Church, at Stedmanville, new-year's eve night.

A candy pulling and pound party at Mrs. Sarah Featherston's next Wednesday night for the benefit of the Forks Mission Sunday-school. Come, everybody, and we will insure you a pleasant time.

Mr. Howard Black's head rather unexpectedly encountered the floor of the skating rink hall the other night, but he is up going around now, and hopes are entertained that he may recover.

The Forks skating rink club met for the first time last Tuesday evening at Stedman Hall, and was attended by a large number of ladies and gentlemen. The members did some very beautiful skating, or at least they attempted to do some beautiful skating and failed only because they did not know how to skate.
